MCVET Celebrates #GivingTuesday and Pledges to Raise Money for Homeless Veterans

#GivingTuesday is a global day of giving that harnesses the collective power of individuals, communities and organizations to encourage philanthropy and to celebrate generosity worldwide. Following Thanksgiving and the widely recognized shopping events Black Friday and Cyber Monday, this year's #GivingTuesday will take place on November 27th and will kick off the giving season by inspiring people to collaborate and give back, especially to a non-profit organization supporting homeless veterans.

The mission of Maryland Center for Veterans Education and Training (MCVET) is to provide homeless veterans and other veterans in need with comprehensive services that will enable them to rejoin their communities as productive citizens. Our 110,000 sq. ft. facility provides transitional housing, mental health services, employment, education, substance abuse support, financial stability, case management, benefits counseling, support groups, after care programs, intensive outpatient program (IOP) and outpatient program (OP).

To support MCVET's homeless veterans on #GivingTuesday to join the celebration of giving, please visit www.mcvet.org for on-line donations. Please pledge and make charitable donations through the Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) # 50343 and United Way # 5230. Checks can be made payable to MCVET, 301 N. High Street, Baltimore MD 21202. Please state in the check's memo/subject area: GivingTuesday

"It takes An Entire Community to Help A Homeless Veteran Heal."
